Dear Parent/Carer

IB World School Status

At Wilmington Academy, we have always had high aspirations for our students and are seeking to provide an outstanding educational experience that meets the needs of all our learners.

In order to drive up standards, we have applied to become an International Baccalaureate World School from September 2017. We believe that by being part of this, not only will we be able to offer the exciting International Baccalaureate Careers-related Programme to our Post 16 students, it will enhance the education of every student in the Academy.

The IBCP is part of a Kent project involving almost 30 secondary schools. Students who have already completed the IBCP, which is a blend of academic and vocational qualifications as well as employability skills, have gone on to university, apprenticeships and employment. The programme, which is delivered world-wide, is recognised by the Department of Education, universities and businesses and is particularly appealing because of its flexibility and the opportunities it creates for students.

I will keep you updated regarding our progress but we are confident that we will be successful.

Yours sincerely

Tracey Trusler
