Year 8 - KS3

IB MYP INDIVIDUALS & SOCIETIES - MORALS & ETHICS

What do you need to be successful in this course?

Open-minded, balanced, reflective, good listener, internationally-minded, able to work in a team and using your own initiative to help you to become an independent learner.

Prejudice and Discrimination – Looking at all forms of discriminations and its effects on society

A Matter of Life and Death – Including religious views on matters such as organ donation

Forming Successful Relationships – What makes a healthy, balanced relationship

The Choices we Make – For students to understand the importance of decision making

How are our Morals and Values formed – Understanding the role of parents and religion in developing our world view

Economic Well-being – Learning budgeting and how to manage person finances