Upcoming Examinations

“Believe in yourself; anything is possible; don’t just fly - soar; strive further, reach higher”

Important Dates

Your mock exams run from Monday 28th November until Friday 9th December.

Two mop-up dates will take place on 12th and 13th December.

If you miss an exam after Wednesday 7th December you will not sit this in the mop-up day.

Public BTEC/Finance exams and IB Coursework deadline
January.

Attendance & Punctuality

It is extremely important for you to sit all exams at the scheduled time. Students who sit mock exams at separate times rarely perform as well. These grades will be used for references.

You MUST be on time for your exams. Lateness can lead to exclusion from an exam.

Morning exams = 08:40 am

Afternoon exams = 13:00 pm

Your Exam timetable

Speaking exams times and dates will not be on your individual timetable and information will be given by your class teacher.

If you do not have your timetable please speak to your form tutor or Ms Elson as these should have been given out this week.

“Believe in yourself; anything is possible; don’t just fly - soar; strive further, reach higher”

Invigilators

Role of invigilator

1. Ensure all exams are run to JCQ expectations and regulations.
2. Support students throughout the process.

You MUST be polite at all times. These staff are here to help during a very stressful time.

Expectations and Behaviour

When you enter the venue of your exam you are placed under examination conditions.

From this point on you must follow all instructions given by the invigilators. You must remain silent throughout and you must not communicate in anyway with another student.

During the exam, failure to follow these instructions could result in disqualification for all taking the exam.

“Believe in yourself; anything is possible; don’t just fly - soar; strive further, reach higher”

Expectations and Behaviour

Regulations regarding times leaving the venue

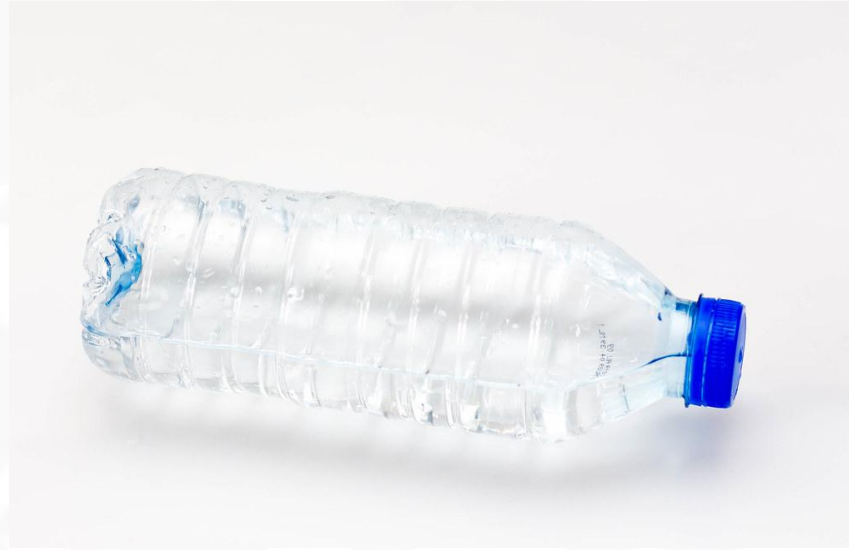

Morning sessions

Earliest times to leave the venue 10:00

Afternoon sessions

Earliest time to leave the venue 14:30

Equipment

In addition...

- You will need 2 black pens, pencil, rubber, ruler and protractor.
- If your exam requires notes, these will be printed off and given to you by the invigilators.
