Post 16 Summer Exam Schedule

“Believe in yourself; anything is possible; don't just fly - soar; strive further, reach higher”

The role of the Invigilators

Role of invigilator

1. Ensure all exams are run to JCQ expectations and regulations.
2. Support students throughout the process.

You MUST be polite at all times. These staff are here to help during a very stressful time.

Expectations & Behaviour

When you enter the venue of your exam you are placed under examination conditions.

From this point on you must follow all instructions given by the invigilators. You must remain silent throughout and you must not communicate in anyway with another student.

During the exam, failure to follow these instructions could result in disqualification for all taking the exam.

“Believe in yourself; anything is possible; don’t just fly - soar; strive further, reach higher”

Expectations & Behaviour

Regulations regarding times leaving the venue

Morning sessions:

IB morning sessions begin at 8:00 am

Earliest times to leave the venue 10:00 am

Afternoon sessions:

IB afternoon sessions begin at 12:00 pm

Earliest time to leave the venue 14:30 pm

Speak to Miss Evans or Miss Sanders if you think you will have an issue with these start times

Exam Essentials

You will need to bring the following in a clear pencil case for all exams

- ❖ Black pen, HB pencil, Ruler, Rubber, Sharpener, Highlighter
- ❖ Calculator - No lid
- ❖ Maths set (Protractor, Compass etc)
- ❖ Students may also bring a bottle of water, in a clear bottle with no label.

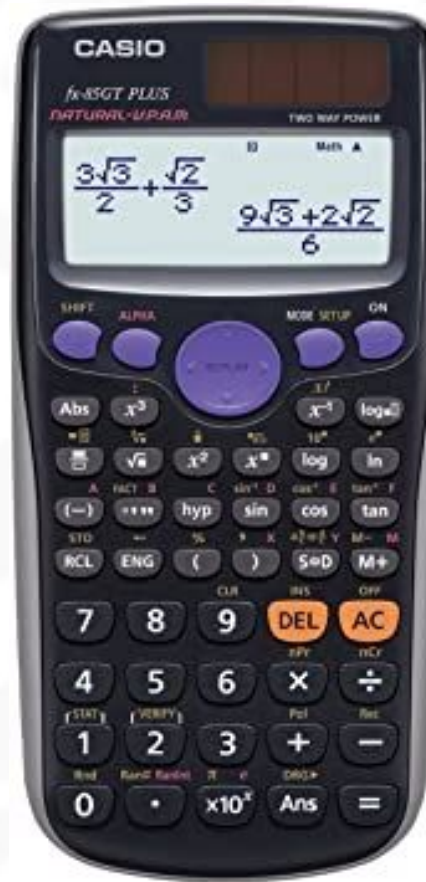

Know when your exams are and arrive promptly for all exams!

Prohibited items

Water is permitted (in a clear bottle, no label).

Should you find yourself in possession of any of these prohibited items, YOU MUST notify an invigilator immediately.

Exam protocols

You must follow the JCQ/IB exam regulations. There are severe sanctions and consequences set out if you breach any of the rules.

These regulations include the following:

- ❖ Mobile phones, iPad, iPod/MP3 player, wrist watch or other data or communication device are strictly prohibited in any exam room.
- ❖ No communication once entered the exam room - If assistance is required you must raise your hand and wait for a member of staff to assist.
- ❖ You are required to stay in the exam room for the entire examination until dismissed by a member of staff.

Revision and exam advice

- Revision plan broken down into small chunks
- Aids to retain information e.g. flash cards/mind-maps
- Schedule breaks and plan activities away from revision
- Know your specification, exam paper set up and advance information/formula sheets.
- Focus on topics identified from your mocks by your teacher
- When revising, talk through content with friends/family - this aids retention
